Amarillo Area Corvette Club PCCC's Cruise Night

Please join us after the Panhandle Council of Car Clubs Cruise Night gathering for a fun, family-friendly, and FREE evening cruise to the Sad Monkey Mercantile.

'Cruise Night' is where all the clubs and local car enthusiasts meet in Amarillo.

Cars start arriving at around 4:30 P.M. and the cruise starts at 6:00 pm.

Cars begin by meeting at the Paramount Baptist Church (south parking lot) located at:
3801 S Western St.

The Amarillo Area Corvette Club will be hosting the August 2nd cruise to the Sad Monkey Mercantile and we would love for you to join us! Sad Monkey Mercantile is located near the entrance to Palo Duro Canyon, and their address is:

9800 TX-217

Canyon, TX 79015

We will cruise to the parking lot where cruisers will enjoy cookies, cold bottles of water, and a drawing for a chance to win one of many gift cards!

The Sad Monkey Mercantile has a wonderful patio, food truck, ice cream truck, and indoor restaurant that offers multiple craft beers on tap, coffees, and various other refreshments.

Sad Monkey is welcoming the PCCC Cruisers with a live band along with their food options for any cruiser who would like to stay and enjoy their great amenities.

Sad Monkey has a variety of appetizers, hot and cold sandwiches, pizza, tap beers, bottled beers, wine, all kinds of coffees and hot chocolates. The food truck will offer a few more choices on food and for those Ice Cream lovers....there will even be an ice cream truck for dessert! You can check out their menu at:
